

Kingswood United Methodist Church has an immediate opening for a Director of Family and Children's Ministries. Kingswood, located just north of Atlanta in Dunwoody, is a vibrant five-hundred-member congregation with a well-staffed 175 student pre-school and an active Sports and Fitness ministry.

The Director of Family and Children's Ministry (DFCM) is responsible for leading, overseeing, and evaluating the Family and Children's Ministry at Kingswood United Methodist Church. This will involve planning and implementing weekly activities with other staff and volunteers for children of nursery age through 5th grade. The Director will plan and coordinate children's activities such as projects and seasonal activities throughout the year. Our Director, along with other members will develop outreach ministry activities to children and their families in our local community.

The ideal candidate will have:

- A college degree
- Prior experience in a program staff role is preferred.
- Able to work part-time on a weekly basis.
- Able to attend required staff meetings, Wednesday Bible Club and Sunday activities.
- The ability to relate with adults and especially with children.
- Skills in organization and leadership within a team environment, goal orientation and evaluation, communication through public speaking and writing.
- Experience in leading teams and engagement as a team member.
- A commitment to growth, innovation, and creativity in using a variety of programs, styles, and forms of ministry to accomplish shared goals and mission of Kingswood United Methodist Church.
- A commitment to leading children and adults to knowledge of the saving grace of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

To request a full job description, and / or to submit your resume, please email the Senior Pastor at cbroome@kingswoodumc.org

Please no recruiting agencies or phone calls.